ONE Massachusetts offers trainings—in English and Spanish—designed to give residents the tools they need to understand the profound implications of tax and budget policies on all of our communities, and to advocate effectively for on specific issues.

Trainings are free of charge for groups of all sizes, and range from 20-minute budget updates to half-day interactive workshops:

- Basic Budget Literacy:
Affects of budget priorities and tax policies
- Building on Our Budget History:
How decades of policy decisions in Massachusetts have shaped our state's budget, along with a look at our tax policy options moving forward.
- Talking About Our Government:
Communicate about public policy issues in ways that engage our communities, increase confidence in our ability to work together towards goals, and effectively advocate at all levels of government.
